

Application for admission to the Ph.D program at the Norwegian School of Sport Sciences (NIH):

- | | |
|--|-------------------|
| 1. Name (last name, first name, middle names) | 2. Date of birth |
| | |
| 3. Complete postal address (street name, house number) | Post code |
| | |
| Telephone daytime..... | Mobile phone..... |
| E-mail address: _____ | |

4. Present occupation (school, work – please indicate name of institution/company)
-

5 Attachments

Application shall be submitted in 5 copies

The following information must be enclosed for the application to be considered:

- A. Project description max 10 pages excl list of literature (12 point, 1,5 line*)
- B. Progress plan showing progress per semester – including both work on thesis and courses in literature and ethics, science and method exam and course of method
- C. Plan for financing:
For applicants for doctorate positions financed by NIH:
 If costs for completing the doctorate study exceeds the available annum, documentation of financing of the extra costs must be included.
For externally financed candidates:
 Documentation of financing of the doctorate study (salary and project costs) must be included.
- D. Documentation of special needs for scientific and material resources
- E. Plans for stay at another institution, including research institutes abroad,
- F. Plans for dissemination including whether the plan is to submit the dissertation as a monography or article based and any plans for presentation at national and international research conferences
- G. Information on possible IPR restrictions for protection of other's parties rights that may hinder publication and public defense of the dissertation
- H. Suggestion regarding main supervisor and indication of research environment. Written confirmation from supervisor shall be included. If the suggested supervisor is not employed at NIH, an updated CV for the supervisor must be attached
- I. Statement regarding possible judicial and ethical problems that the project may rise and how these can be solved. The application must show if the project is dependent on accept from research ethical committees or other authorities or from private (informants, patients, parents etc.)
- J. CV and official diploma

Signature

Date